

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 8 August 2026

Welcome to Kalyankari Yoga Studio (“we,” “us,” “our,” or “Kalyankari Yoga Studio”). This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect information provided by visitors to our website, kalyankariyogastudio.com (“Website”).

By using our Website or submitting your information through our contact or appointment forms, you acknowledge the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect personal information that you voluntarily provide when you:

- Contact us through our Website
- Submit an enquiry
- Request an appointment or consultation
- Enquire about yoga, meditation, therapy, counselling, or wellness services
- Contact us by phone, email, WhatsApp, or social media

The information may include:

- First name and last name
- Phone number
- Email address
- Message or enquiry details
- Preferred appointment information
- Other information you voluntarily provide

We recommend that you do not submit unnecessary confidential or sensitive personal information through general website forms.

2. How We Use Your Information

We may use the information collected to:

- Respond to your enquiries

- Contact you regarding your enquiry
- Schedule appointments and consultations
- Provide information about our yoga and wellness services
- Communicate with you regarding sessions or appointments
- Improve our Website and services
- Maintain business and service records
- Comply with applicable legal requirements

We do not use your personal information for unrelated purposes without an appropriate legal basis or your consent where required.

3. Yoga, Therapy and Counselling Information

If you contact Kalyankari Yoga Studio regarding yoga therapy, therapy, counselling, meditation, or other wellness services, you may voluntarily provide information about your physical, emotional, or personal circumstances.

Please share only information that is reasonably necessary for your enquiry or session.

Any information shared during a professional session will be handled with appropriate confidentiality, subject to applicable laws, professional responsibilities, and circumstances where disclosure may be legally required.

The Website and its contact forms are not an emergency or crisis service.

4. Cookies and Website Technologies

Our Website may use cookies and similar technologies to:

- Improve Website functionality
- Understand how visitors use the Website
- Improve user experience
- Analyse Website performance

We may also use third-party analytics or advertising technologies where applicable.

You may manage or disable cookies through your browser settings. Some Website features may not function properly if cookies are disabled.

5. Third-Party Services

The Website may use third-party services and platforms, which may include:

- Website hosting providers
- Analytics services
- Google services
- WhatsApp or communication platforms
- Social media platforms
- Appointment or booking services
- Payment services, if introduced in the future

These third parties may process information according to their own privacy policies and terms.

We are not responsible for the privacy practices of third-party websites or platforms.

6. How We Share Information

We do not sell, rent, or trade your personal information.

We may share information with trusted service providers where reasonably necessary to:

- Operate and maintain our Website
- Manage enquiries and appointments
- Provide requested services
- Maintain technical infrastructure
- Meet legal or regulatory requirements

We may also disclose information if required by law, court order, government authority, or where reasonably necessary to protect our legal rights, safety, or property.

7. Data Security

We take reasonable administrative, technical, and organisational measures to protect personal information against unauthorised access, misuse, alteration, disclosure, or loss.

However, no method of transmission or storage over the Internet can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

8. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, including providing services, maintaining business records, resolving disputes, and complying with legal obligations.

When information is no longer required, it may be deleted or securely disposed of, subject to applicable legal requirements.

9. Your Privacy Rights

Depending on applicable law, you may have the right to:

- Request access to personal information we hold about you
- Request correction of inaccurate information
- Request deletion of personal information where legally permitted
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent
- Raise concerns regarding the handling of your information

To make a privacy-related request, please contact us using the details below.

10. Children's Privacy

Kalyankari Yoga Studio offers yoga services that may be suitable for children. However, where personal information relating to a child is collected, appropriate parental or guardian involvement and consent will be obtained where required by applicable law.

Parents or legal guardians may contact us regarding information provided in connection with a child's enquiry or service.

11. External Links

Our Website may contain links to third-party websites, including social media platforms.

We do not control and are not responsible for the privacy practices, security, or content of external websites.

We recommend reviewing the privacy policies of third-party websites before providing them with personal information.

12. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes to our services, Website, technology, or applicable legal requirements.

Any updated Privacy Policy will be published on this page with a revised "Last Updated" date.

13. Contact Us

If you have any questions, concerns, or requests regarding this Privacy Policy or the handling of your personal information, please contact us.
